

Directors Lab West and Theatre Puget Sound Theatre4Play Festival

Sponsored by The Stage Directors and Choreographers Foundation and the Society of Stage Directors and Choreographers

The Pasadena Playhouse and the Theatre @ Boston Court hosted the sixth annual Directors Lab West, May 21–28. The Lab serves as a forum for emerging and mid-career theatre artists to discuss, workshop, and exchange ideas about theatre. Throughout the eight-day event, there were close to 100 hours of programming dedicated to nurturing and enriching both the Los Angeles and west coast theatre communities. The Lab is free and is attended only by accepted applicants or invited guests.

On May 24th, the Lab hosted a session with director-writer-producer Garry Marshall that was open to all SSDC members. Mr. Marshall discussed his career in theatre, TV, and film as well as his newest project adapting "Happy Days" into a stage musical.

Photos from the Directors Lab West Events,
May 21–28, 2005.

